With reference to the Netherlands Consulate-General letter of July 20, 1932 concerning Boris Grigorievich Marieff and his family inquiries show, that this individual was born on May 24, 1909 at Perm Province, Russia. He was educated by a private tutor and later studied music under Mr. Antorolsky in Shanghai. Together with his parents he migrated to Harbin in 1918. In 1920 they removed to Hankow where his father obtained employment in a cafe as a musician. In 1923 the family came to Shanghai and resided here until 1925 when they returned to Hankow. In 1927 the family returned to Shanghai and shortly after arrival, B.G. Marieff and his father were engaged with the Carlton Theatre. During 1930 B.G. Marieff returned to Hankow where he is at present working as a musician with the "International Bar." His father Grigory Grigorievich Marieff, who was born in Moscow on June 8, 1863, is a musician by profession and expert in the manufacture and repairing of musical instruments. He resides with his wife and second son at No. 616 Avenue Joffre. During 1930 he visited in company with Impressario Carpi, Japan and Manila. At present he is employed with the Cathay Hotel Orchestra. His wife Praskovia Vasilievna Marieff, a native of Neviansky Zavod, Perm Province, was born in 1890, and his second son Alexander Grigorievich Marieff, age about 20, was born in Buzuluk, Samara Province. The latter received his education in the Hankow Russian School and later at the "Supervisor and Drawing School" in Shanghai. He is employed with L.E. Hudac, Architect, No. 27 Yuen Ming Yuen Road.

There is nothing in Municipal Police records to the detriment of either B.G. Marieff or any of his family.

Sir,

With reference to my letter of the 16th instant, No. 1967, I have the honour to state that in addition to the persons, mentioned therein Mr. Boris Grigorievitch MARIEFF, born at Samara on May 24th 1909, has applied to this Consulate for a visé to Netherlands India. He has been engaged as a musician in Hankow for the last 2 years but his father, Grigory Marieff, has been residing in Shanghai since 1926, and lives at 616 Avenue Joffre.

I should feel greatly obliged to learn whether anything detrimental to the Marieff family, which came from Russia to Harbin in 1918, is known to the Police.

Subject (in full) Inquiry from Netherlands Consulate re: Nikifor Ivanovich Feotistoff, Francishek Maichrovski, Nikolai Alexandrovich Shumilkin, Janis Zelvakovs (Zelvakovs) and Johan Berezniak alias John Birenick.

Made by D.S. Tcheremshansky. Forwarded by D.B. Kim S.I.

With reference to the attached letter dated July 16, 1932 from the Netherlands Consulate-General on the subject of the abovementioned persons their history and record as known to the Municipal Police are as follows :-

(1) Nikifor Ivanovich Feotistoff, Russian, was born in Moscow on March 13, 1900. He studied dancing in the Imperial Ballet School, Moscow. After completing his studies he obtained employment with the Moscow Bolshoy (Grand) Theatre. In 1921 he joined the ballet of Impressario Iliroff and with this individual visited several towns along the Siberian Railway. Upon arrival in Harbin sometime later, Iliroff's troupe was disbanded. Feotistoff then joined Stolin's opera in Harbin, and in company with Mrs. Stavrinsky Ballet visited Hongkong, Singapore and Saigon. In 1925 while in Shanghai he exchanged his Soviet Passport for a Russian Emigrants Passport. During 1925-1928 Feotistoff visited Hongkong, Hankow and Manila performing in various theatres. In 1928 he changed his profession to that of a musician. In this capacity he worked, from 1928 to 1932, in various dance halls both in Shanghai and Tsingtao. In May 1932 he proceeded to Chefoo but returned to Shanghai on July 12 owing to the bad business of the "Red Fox" Cabaret where he had been playing. Feotistoff is registered with Russian Emigrants Committee. He resides at No. 76 Route Vallon.

(2) Francishek Maichrovsky, Pole, was born in Radziviloff on October 8, 1868. He is a musician by profession. He arrived in Harbin from U.S.S.R. in 1923 and came to Shanghai via Hankow in 1927. In 1930 he visited Java. He returned to Shanghai sometime later and at present resides at No. 636 Rue Pere Froc.

(3) Nikolai Alexandrovich Shumilkin, Russian, was born in Orenburg on February 24, 1896. He arrived in Harbin from Vladivostok in August 1921, and since that time has been engaged as a musician in Mukden, Tientsin, Hankow and Peking. He arrived in Shanghai from Mukden in October 1931 to join the "Black Cat" orchestra. He is registered with the Russian Emigrants Committee and resides at No. 1232 Rue Lafayette (apartment No. 4).

(4) Janis Zelvakovs (Ivan Zelvakoff), Latvian, was born in Riga on June 20, 1890. He arrived in Harbin from Vladivostok in 1922. Here he remained until 1925 when he went to Shanghai. In 1929 he visited Hongkong. He resides at No. 532 Avenue Joffre (apartment No. 6).

(5) Jogan Borezniak alias John Birsniek, Latvian, was born at Riga on April 26, 1896. He arrived in Harbin from Europe in 1917. In 1923 left Harbin and went to Tientsin. Here he remained until the beginning of 1933 when he proceeded to Shanghai. He is at present employed as pianist with the "Caveau Pigalle" Orchestra, No. 372 Avenue du Roi Albert. He resides with his wife Anastasia D. ^{nee} Kostina, at No. 1295 Rue Lafayette (apartment No. 3).

There is nothing in Police records to the detriment of the above mentioned persons.
